

Dual Admission KCTCS - Midway University

DUAL ADMISSION PROGRAM OVERVIEW

The Dual Admission Program (DAP) is for students who plan to attend a community college first, and then transfer to Midway University for a specific major. The program is intended to help students prepare their transfer to Midway University well in advance of the matriculation date and take some of the stress out of the transfer process.

How to Qualify for the Dual Admission Program

In order to qualify for DAP a student must:

- Meet admission requirements for Midway University and maintain at least a 2.0/4.0 cumulative GPA (as calculated by Midway University) while attending the community college.
- Attend any KCTCS's community colleges

How to Apply to the Dual Admission Program

Students who wish to apply to DAP will need to complete the Application for Undergraduate Admission (www.midway.edu/admissions-aid/apply-to-midway) and Scholarships. To ensure consideration for DAP, students will need to:

- Answer “yes” to the question that asks if the student would like to participate in the Dual Admission Program.
- List the community college attending, along with any other colleges or universities attended.
- Choose the term that he or she intends to transfer to Midway University.
- Submit the necessary credentials to be admitted to the Midway University.

Students with any credit hours and want to transfer to Midway University

- Submit official college transcripts from every college or university attended.
- Have at least a 2.0/4.0 cumulative GPA (as calculated by Midway University).
- Be eligible to continue enrollment at the last institution attended.
- Must meet freshman admission criteria for Midway University.
- Submit official high school transcripts for review.
- Submit an ACT or SAT test score if under the age of 21.

Benefits of the Dual Admission Program

There are many benefits available to transfer students taking part in the Dual Admission Program, including:

- The Dual Admission Program Transfer Plan, which shows a student how the credit earned transfers to Midway University, the degree requirements for earning the specified bachelor's degree at Midway University, and a list of courses (in the community college course numbers) that a student may take and apply toward the intended bachelor's degree at Midway University.
- Semester by semester updates on how the recent credit earned transfers to Midway University.
- Personalized contact with a Midway University staff member.
- Early admission to Midway University.
- Invitation to join the DAP student Facebook group.
- Receive Midway University ID to attend athletic events
- The opportunity to participate in a dual enrollment component, which allows students to enroll in an online transfer orientation course while attending the community college.

Financial Aid

Financial Aid for students taking part in the Dual Admission Program will be packaged and aid assigned through:

- The KCTCS Institution's Financial Aid Office while the student is enrolled at his/her KCTCS college working toward their associate degree.
- Midway University's Financial Aid Office when the student transfers to Midway University.
- Students who transfer from KCTCS to Midway University and wish to continue to take courses with KCTCS that will count toward their bachelor's degree at Midway University will have the opportunity to do so under the consortium agreement between the two institutions.
